

BONIS

Le Songe de Cléopâtre

ELGAR

Violin Concerto

RUBINSTEIN

Moses
Overture to Tableau 8

MUSSORGSKY/RAVEL

Pictures at an Exhibition

FULHAM SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Madeleine Pickering violin

9 March 2024
7.30pm

Sponsored by

NOVOTEL
LONDON WEST

ST JOHN'S SMITH SQUARE

FULHAM SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Mel Bonis

Le Songe de Cléopâtre

Edward Elgar

Violin Concerto

Anton Rubinstein

Moses: Overture to Tableau 8

Modest Mussorgsky (arr. Maurice Ravel)

Pictures at an Exhibition

Tom Evans leader

Marc Dooley conductor

Madeleine Pickering violin

9 March 2024, 7.30pm

St John's Smith Square, London
SW1P 3HA

Tickets £14, concessions £12,
under-16s £9. Booking fees
apply.

Book online: sjs.org.uk

Booking Helpline:

020 4553 0750

FSO performs Mussorgsky's much-loved musical depiction of an art gallery, masterfully orchestrated by Ravel. In this performance an extra image will join the exhibition: an excerpt from Rubinstein's opera 'Moses'.

In the first half of the concert, French late-Romantic composer Mel Bonis paints a picture in sound of a dreaming Cleopatra, and award-winning soloist Madeleine Pickering plays Elgar's passionate Violin Concerto.

Scan to book online

fso